Bulletin No. 2014-2

Date: May 5, 2014

Subject: Revised Model Gaming Ordinance

This Bulletin provides guidance for tribal governments on the development and updating of a tribal gaming ordinance. It revises and supersedes the guidance previously provided and published by the NIGC in Bulletin 93-1 (June 10, 1993) and Bulletin 05-05 (August 24, 2005). The Commission offers this revised Model Gaming Ordinance ("Model Ordinance") to assist tribes with meeting the ordinance requirements of IGRA and the NIGC's regulations, and with crafting effective ordinances that address each tribe's unique regulatory needs.

Many sections and provisions of this Model Ordinance were taken from a variety of tribal gaming ordinances so that tribes could benefit from the collective knowledge and experience of the more than 250 gaming tribes. Some sections of the Model Ordinance present different options so that tribes may adopt and use language and provisions that will work best for them.

Explanatory footnotes and matters that appear in italics in the text of the Model Ordinance are for reference only and should not be included in a tribe's gaming ordinance. Shaded areas are included for a tribe to insert its own information.

In addition to the revised Model Ordinance, the NIGC is also posting the checklist used by the Office of General Counsel when performing the initial review of an ordinance. The checklist includes all of the provisions required by IGRA and the NIGC's regulations.

For any questions about the revised Model Ordinance or the checklist, please contact the Office of General Counsel at (202) 632-7003.

If a tribe opts to establish a gaming commission, it may wish to include more details in this section, such as how many commissioners should be enrolled tribal members; the length of their appointments; any additional restrictions on commissioners' activities, relationships and holdings; how often written reports will be required of the commission; and how complaints will be processed by the commission.

Terms of office for Commissioners shall be as follows: the Chair shall serve an initial term of one (1) year, with subsequent Chairs serving 3-year terms; and the Vice-Chair and Commissioner(s) shall serve an initial term of two (2) years, with subsequent Vice-Chairs and Commissioners serving 3-year terms.

Tribal members previously convicted of any felony or misdemeanor offense of embezzlement, theft or any other offense related to money or honesty, such as fraud, will only be allowed to serve as a Commissioner if the [Tribal governing body] specifically finds that a significant amount of time has passed and the person is now of trustworthy character. The [Tribal governing body] shall require a criminal history check with appropriate law enforcement agencies for each Commissioner candidate; shall review the candidate's criminal history check results; and shall make an appropriate eligibility determination before appointing an individual to the position of Commissioner.
- F. The Tribe recognizes the importance of an independent Tribal Gaming Commission in maintaining a well-regulated gaming operation. The Commission shall be independent of, and act independently and autonomously from, the [Tribal governing body] in all matters within its purview. No prior, or subsequent, review by the [Tribal governing body] of any actions of the Commission shall be required or permitted except as otherwise explicitly provided in this ordinance.
