1. Notification of Violation

The Chairman of the National Indian Gaming Commission (NIGC) hereby gives notice that the Assiniboine and Sioux Tribes of the Fort Peck Indian Reservation (Respondent, Tribe, or Tribes), located in Poplar, Montana, is in violation of the Indian Gaming Regulatory Act (IGRA) and NIGC regulations for failure to timely submit annual audits.

2. Authority

Under regulations of the National Indian Gaming Commission, the Chairman of the NIGC (Chairman) may issue a Notice of Violation (NOV) to any person for violation of any provision of IGRA, NIGC regulations, or any provision of a tribal gaming ordinance or resolution approved by the Chairman. 25 C.F.R. § 573.3.

3. Applicable Federal and Tribal Laws

- A. IGRA requires an annual outside audit of each gaming operation and requires that a copy of the results of the annual audit be submitted to the NIGC. 25 U.S.C. § 2710(b)(2)(C).
- B. NIGC regulations define "gaming operation" as each economic entity that is licensed by a tribe, operates the games, receives the revenues, issues the prizes, and pays the expenses. A gaming operation may be operated by a tribe directly; by a management contractor; or, under certain conditions, by another person or other entity. 25 C.F.R. § 502.10.

- C. NIGC regulations require that a tribe cause to be conducted annual independent audits of the financial statements of each gaming operation on Indian lands and submit a copy of the audit report(s) and any management letter(s) setting forth the results of the annual audit(s) to the NIGC within 120 days after the end of each fiscal year. 25 C.F.R. §§ 571.12 and 571.13.
- D. Section 101 of the Assiniboine and Sioux Tribes of the Fort Peck Indian Reservation Gaming Ordinance (Ordinance), the Tribes' approved gaming ordinance, declares that IGRA provides for certain Federal regulation of Indian gaming and that tribal regulation of gaming activity is vital to the protection of trust lands and the interests of the Tribes and their members.
- E. Section 411 of the Ordinance requires that each licensee, including the Tribes, shall cause to be conducted an annual outside audit of the operation for presentation to the NIGC. The tribal subdivisions shall provide their audit reports to the Tribes for review at least thirty (30) days before they are due to the NIGC and the Tribes forward all audit reports to the NIGC.
- F. Section 206 of the Ordinance defines "tribal subdivision" as the community organization of each Reservation community, non-profit entities organized to raise funds and operate programs to promote the health and welfare of tribal members and/or to organize and operate ceremonies, celebrations and powwows and tribal school boards.

4. Role of Independent Audit Report

Submission of the annual independent audit report by a firm of certified public accountants is critical to the NIGC's mission to protect the integrity of Indian gaming. A firm's ability to conduct an audit in accordance with Generally Accepted Auditing Standards (GAAP) and render an opinion on the financial statements prepared in conformity with GAAP provides a certain level of assurance as to the security of tribal gaming revenues. The audit report prepared and submitted on a timely basis is evidence of, among other things, the integrity of the gaming operation and, more specifically, of the adequacy of the books and records, the functioning of the internal financial controls, and the disclosure of information having a bearing on the financial statements.

5. Circumstances of the Violation

The Tribes are therefore in violation of these statutes and regulations, as well as Sections 101 and 411 of the Ordinance, for failure to timely submit annual independent audit reports.
