

TRAINING ANNOUNCEMENT:

REGULATING GAMING TECHNOLOGY

February 14-16, 2012 in Temecula, California

The National Indian Gaming Commission, Sacramento Region is once again offering our training course titled Regulating Gaming Technology at the Pechanga Resort & Casino in Temecula February 14 through 16, 2012. This updated three day course will provide tribal regulators a comprehensive understanding of various gaming technologies on the casino floor, strategies to effectively regulate such technology. A course announcement and agenda (linked below) detailing the topics to be covered, are included in this announcement for your review. This training is intended for tribal gaming regulatory authority and casino compliance personnel.

The course will be held in Hummingbird Hall at the Pechanga Resort & Casino in Temecula. This resort offers a full-service hotel with conference facilities. Please see www.pechanga.com for more details

As always, there is no fee for attendance at this NIGC training course. We do require that each attendee pre-register for the course by submitting the attached registration form to the Sacramento Region office of NIGC. Course attendees are responsible for their own travel and lodging costs and arrangements. For the convenience of our attendees, the Pechanga Resort & Casino will make available a block of guest rooms for our event. The hotel is offering guest rooms at the discounted rate of $99/night for rooms on the nights of February 13 through 15, 2011. Each attendee may reserve their room by calling 888-732-4264 and mentioning the "Pechanga Gaming Commission" room block or by reserving online using the group code SNIG0212.

The course of instruction will begin on Tuesday, February 14, 2012 promptly at 9:00am and continue until 5:00pm on Thursday, February 16, 2012.
