

Biography

ST. PAUL REGION DIRECTOR LINDA DURBIN

Linda Durbin is the St. Paul Region Director at the National Indian Gaming Commission, which includes the regional office in St. Paul, Minn. and a satellite office in Rapid City, S.D. She is responsible for the technical assistance, training and compliance for 142 Indian gaming facilities owned and operated by 59 federally recognized tribes located in nine states stretching across the upper Midwest.

After a ten-year pin for federal service, a position name-change from Field Investigator to Compliance Officer and the retirement of the region's director, Durbin was appointed interim Region Director in January 2012. The permanent promotion was effective in September of 2012.

Durbin is a graduate of Minot State University in Minot, N.D. with a Bachelor of Science degree in Criminal Justice.

The National Indian Gaming Commission is committed to the prompt and efficient regulation of the Indian gaming industry, which spans more than 420 gaming establishments, associated with nearly 240 tribes across 28 states. The Commission's dedication to compliance with the Indian Gaming Regulatory Act ensures the integrity of the $27 billion Indian gaming industry. For more information, visit www.nigc.gov.