Location

Whatcom County is a unique area, nestled in the Northwest corner of Washington State. We are situated between two of North America's more international cities; Seattle, Washington – 89 miles South, and Vancouver, British Columbia – 40 miles North. We also offer some of the most magnificent natural scenery, with access to skiing, snowboarding, biking and hiking at Mt. Baker. Whatcom County is the home of craft breweries, wineries, distilleries, charming small towns, and water adventures like whale watching, river rafting, and kayaking. Uncrowded shorelines, parks, family attractions, shopping, theaters, and more, are all within a short drive of Silver Reef Casino.
