

Biography

SUPERVISORY FINANCIAL SPECIALIST MITCHELL GILES

Mitch Giles is the Supervisory Financial Specialist for the National Indian Gaming Commission, an independent federal regulatory agency established within the Department of the Interior. Giles supervises the day-to-day activities of the finance group. Those responsibilities include ensuring the timeliness and accuracy in the review and approval of management contracts, oversight of the agency's procurement activities and reviews and analyzes financial and financial-related documents received by the agency in order to assure compliance with statutory and regulatory requirements. Giles also assists in the preparation of the annual budget for the finance programs.

Giles joined NIGC as a Financial Analyst in August 2013 and has served as the Supervisory Financial Specialist since April 2015. Prior to working for the NIGC, Giles served as Finance Specialist with the Department of Energy in February 2010. Previously, Giles held various senior accounting and finance positions managing accounting functions for national home building divisions, including D.R. Horton and Pulte Homes, and MCI in telecommunications.

Giles is a Certified Public Accountant (CPA) and holds a Bachelor's of Science degree in Accounting and a minor in Finance.

The Indian Gaming Regulatory Act created the National Indian Gaming Commission to support tribal self-sufficiency and the integrity of Indian gaming. NIGC oversees the efficient regulation of 524 gaming establishments operated by 248 tribes across 29 states.

Updated 8/17/2021