RAPID CITY REGION DIRECTOR LINDA DURBIN

Linda Durbin is the Region Director for the National Indian Gaming Commission's Rapid City Region. In November 2011, Durbin became the Region Director in St Paul, which at that time included Rapid City as a satellite office. As Region Director of the Rapid City Region, she continues to be responsible for training, technical assistance and compliance with the Indian Gaming Regulatory Act for 39 Indian gaming operations and 22 gaming tribes across four states to include South Dakota, North Dakota, Montana, and Wyoming.

Durbin joined the NIGC in April 2000 as a Field Investigator. Prior to joining the NIGC, she worked as an enforcement agent for the South Dakota Commission on Gaming in Deadwood, South Dakota.

Durbin is a graduate of Minot State University in Minot, N.D. with a Bachelor of Science degree in Criminal Justice.

*The Indian Gaming Regulatory Act created the National Indian Gaming Commission to support tribal self-sufficiency and the integrity of Indian gaming. The NIGC has developed four initiatives to support its mission including (1) To protect against anything that amounts to gamesmanship on the backs of tribes; (2) To stay ahead of the Technology Curve; (3) Rural outreach; and (4) To maintain a strong workforce within NIGC and with its tribal regulatory partners. NIGC oversees the efficient regulation of 506 gaming establishments operated by 244 tribes across 29 states. The Commission's dedication to compliance with the Indian Gaming Regulatory Act ensures the integrity of the growing $31.2 billion Indian gaming industry.
