Subject: Agency Operations in the Absence of an Acting or Permanent Chair

National Indian Gaming Commission Chairman Jonodev O. Chaudhuri has resigned effective May 15, 2019. As departing NIGC Chairs have done when there was a possibility that the NIGC would be without an acting or permanent Chair, Chairman Chaudhuri delegated his authorities under 25 U.S.C. § 2707 to Vice Chair Kathryn Isom-Clause. This includes the Chair's authority over hiring and supervision of staff and procurement of necessary goods and services.

Chairman Chaudhuri further delegated to Vice Chair Isom-Clause, to be exercised only in the event of an emergency, his authorities under 25 U.S.C. § 2705. This includes his authority to issue temporary closure orders and proposed civil fine assessments for violations of the IGRA, NIGC regulations, and approved tribal gaming ordinances.

Although the full range of authorities of the Chair cannot be delegated, this action ensures that Vice Chair Isom-Clause can manage the day-to-day functions to allow the agency to continue as normal and address any serious, unexpected situations demanding an immediate response.

This delegation remains in effect until such time as an acting chair is named or a permanent chair is confirmed, at which point that person will assume all of the authorities of the Chair.
