Re: Amended Class III gaming ordinance

Dear Mr. Stensgar:

The National Indian Gaming Commission (NIGC) has completed its review of the recently submitted Coeur d'Alene Tribal Council Resolution 22 (2010), adopted on October 29, 2009, amending the Tribe’s gaming ordinance.

This letter constitutes approval of your submission under the Indian Gaming Regulatory Act (IGRA). It is important to note, however, that approval is granted for gaming only on Indian lands, as defined in IGRA, over which the Tribe has jurisdiction.

Thank you for your submission. The NIGC staff and I look forward to working with you and the Tribe on future gaming issues.

Sincerely,

George T. Skibine
Chairman (Acting)

(C) Application files are maintained by the Licensing Department, and are the property of the CTCGB.

(D) Access Restrictions. Access to Licensing files is restricted to the following:

(1) Members of the Coeur d’Alene Tribal Charitable Gaming Board (CTCGB).

(2) The CTCGB Director and designated CTCGB staff.

(3) Representatives of the National Indian Gaming Commission (NIGC), pursuant to these regulations and applicable federal law.

30-7.02.12 Coeur d’Alene Tribal Gaming Board and Staff – Confidentially

(A) Confidentially of Communications. All communications relating to individual licensing decisions between the CTCGB and CTCGB staff is privileged and confidential if made lawfully and in the course of or the furtherance of the business of the Coeur d’Alene Tribal Gaming Board.

(B) Maintaining Confidentiality. CTCGB staff shall be held to the same strict standard of confidentiality as the CTCGB. A staff member may be subject to termination in the event a breach of confidentiality occurs and the fault is attributed directly to the staff person.
(C) Confidential records may be released to law enforcement agencies if necessary to comply with applicable law or to assist in any investigation into activities that may pose a threat to Tribal assets or the integrity of Coeur d'Alene Casino Resort/Hotel.

(D) Former CTCGB Members and Staff shall be held to the same confidentiality requirements for information they had access to as an active Board Member or staff. Every Board and staff member shall sign a statement agreeing to the above.

30-7.02.13 Suspension or Revocation of License

(A) Gaming Machine Vendors, Gaming Vendors, Their Technicians and Non-Gaming Vendors Licensees Suspension or Revocation. All Vendors and their Technicians licenses are subject to a suspension for a period of no longer than six (6) months or a revocation for a minimum period of twelve (12) months if one or more of the following events occur:

(1) An event occurs that would have prevented the original issuance of a license.

(2) A violation of any provision of the COEUR D'ALENE TRIBAL GAMING CODE, MINIMUM INTERNAL CONTROLS, STANDARD OPERATING PROCEDURES or any other rule or regulation of the Coeur d'Alene Tribal Charitable Gaming Board has occurred.

(3) Receipt of a recommendation from the National Indian Gaming Commission to deny a license.

(4) Any information received resulting in disciplinary actions taken by current gaming facility operations for conduct that poses a threat to other employees or patrons (i.e. failing urinalysis testing, verbal abuse, assaultive behavior).

(B) Summary Suspension. The CTCGB may summarily suspend a license pending a hearing before the Commission based upon prima facie evidence that a licensee has violated any provisions of the TRIBAL GAMING CODE, MINIMUM INTERNAL CONTROLS, STANDARD OPERATING PROCEDURES, THE COMPACT, IGRA and implementing regulations, or any CTCGB regulations — including the occurrence of an event that would have prevented the original issuance of a license.

In addition to inspections and audits conducted by the Board or its designee, the Tribal Council, through the Tribal attorney or his/her designee, shall conduct spot monthly inspections and/or audits, without notice, as he/she sees fit. The results of such spot monthly inspections or audits shall be reported directly to the full Tribal Council and a copy provided to the Board. The Tribal attorney or his/her designee shall have full and complete access to all books, records and facilities of any gaming facility authorized under this Chapter at all times and under whatever conditions as the Tribal attorney or his/her designee requires.

30-9.01 Taxation and Net Revenue Distribution

The Tribe specifically reserves, through its inherent power as a sovereign nation, the full right and authority to adopt or impose a uniform and comprehensive system of taxation and/or fee structure for all gaming allowed under this Code.

Per capita payments from net gaming revenue are subject to federal income taxation. The Tribe shall so notify each recipient at the time of disbursement.

30-9.02 Net Revenue Distribution - Land Repurchase Requirement

Not less than twenty-five percent (25%) of net revenues shall go to the land repurchase plan of the Coeur d'Alene Tribe. The land repurchase plan promotes Tribal economic development and provides for the general welfare of the Tribe and its members.

30-9.03 Net Revenue Distribution - Other

Up to fifty percent (50%) of net revenues shall be used for the following purposes:

(A) To fund Tribal government operations or programs;
(B) To provide for the general welfare of the Tribe and its members;
(C) To promote Tribal economic development;
(D) To donate to charitable organizations; or

(E) To help fund operations of local government agencies.

30-9.04 Per Capita Payments

Distribution of net gaming revenues is subject to Tribal Code and federal laws, specifically this Chapter and 25 U.S.C. § 2710(b) (3). No less than twenty-five percent (25%) of net gaming revenues are to be distributed as per capita payment to all individual tribal members. The following are guidelines for per capita payments:

(A) Eligibility Deadline. Eligibility for per capita payments is based upon Tribal Enrollment. Enrollment as a Tribal member must be established by September 30 for winter per capita and March 31 for summer per capita of the year of the distribution in order to be eligible for payment. Eligibility for enrollment is reviewed in accordance with Chapter 39 of the Tribal Code.

(B) Minors and Legal Incompetents. The interests of minors and other legally incompetent persons who are entitled to receive per capita payments are to be distributed as follows:

(1) Minors - persons under the age of 18:

(a) One-half of the per capita payment shall be placed into a trust in the name of the individual minor. Such amount shall remain in trust until:

1. the person reaches the age of 18.

(b) One-half of the per capita payment shall be disbursed to the parents or legal guardian for the benefit of such minors. Such payment is necessary for the health, education, and welfare of the individual.

(2) Legal Incompetents - person deemed incompetent through a court proceeding:

(a) Regardless of age of the incompetent, one-half of the per capita payment shall be placed into a trust in the name of the individual incompetent. Such amount may be distributed to the parents or legal guardians of the incompetent upon application. The application must include an explanation of why the trust should be distributed for the benefit of the incompetent.
(h) One-half of the per capita payment shall be disbursed to the parents or legal guardian for the benefit of such legal incompetent. Such payment is necessary for the health, education, and welfare of the individual.

(3) Special Circumstances. The Coeur d'Alene Tribe recognizes there are circumstances which may require or justify disbursement of all or a portion of the remaining individual trust money. An application must be submitted for such disbursement. Applications are available through the Tribal Enrollment Office. Tribal Council or designated representatives will review applications for disbursement under the following circumstances:

(a) Upon certification by at least two licensed physicians that the minor is afflicted with a terminal illness.

(b) Upon certification by a school official that the minor will be graduating. Disbursement for the graduation expenses shall not exceed $500.

(c) Upon showing the legitimate need or exigent circumstance of a minor who has received a high school diploma or GED certificate.

(4) Encumbrances. No funds received and placed in trust on behalf of individual members may be pledged or encumbered in any manner.

(5) Death of a Minor or Legal Incompetent. Upon the death of a minor, all funds including interest shall be transferred from the individual trust account and shall be probated in accordance with appropriate procedures in the court of competent jurisdiction.

30-9.05 Management Contracts

The Tribal Council may enter into management contracts for the conduct of gaming under this Chapter, but in no event shall the management contractor receive more than 40% of the net revenues in consideration of the provisions of management services.

30-10.01 Penalties for Violations
Any person who contracts, supplies, manages, is employed by, or participates in any gaming activity authorized under this Chapter shall, as a matter of doing so, consent to the civil and criminal jurisdiction of the Coeur d'Alene Tribe. Such consent of jurisdictions shall be publicly posted and shall be contained on all cards, tickets or other gaming devices used under the authority of this Chapter.

30-10.02 Civil Penalties for Violations

Any person who shall violate any provisions of this Chapter or shall conduct gaming operations without a required license, shall commit fraud or deceit, or shall engage in professional gambling or bookmaking, shall be subject to one or all of the following civil penalties:

(A) Civil fine of $2,000 per occurrence per day and confiscation of all proceeds from such activities;

(B) Injunctive relief against continued violation of this Chapter;

(C) Exclusion from the Coeur d'Alene Indian Reservation in conformity with Chapter 25 of this Code;

(D) Revocation or suspension of gaming license, or

(E) Civil cause of action by the Tribe for damages, restitution or other equitable relief.

30-11.01 Investigation, Hearings, and Judicial Review

Nothing in this Chapter shall entitle any individual or entity to any right to appeal or judicial review that they do not otherwise have as a result of some other law.

The Board or its designee may conduct any investigation or hold any hearing it deems appropriate and necessary to carry out its responsibilities under this Chapter.

The Board or its designee may conduct such other hearings to review a prior decision as are necessary.

Jurisdiction for judicial review of any administrative hearing decision under this Section shall rest exclusively with the Tribal Court. In the exercise of its jurisdiction to conduct such judicial review, the Court shall be absolutely and completely bound by the findings of facts of the administrative hearing and may only reverse the decision if substantial prejudicial errors of law occur.

30-12.01 Severability

If any provision of this Chapter is held invalid or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remained of this Chapter or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected.

30-13.01 Purpose

The Coeur d'Alene Tribal Council (hereinafter "Tribe"), empowered by the Tribe's Constitution to enact ordinances, hereby enacts this ordinance which shall be referred to as statutes in order to further set the terms for Class II and III gaming operations on Tribal lands. All of the following sections shall apply to Class II gaming. Sections 30-13.03; 30-13.06; 30-13.07 (A), (C), and (D); 30-13.08; and 30-14.01 shall apply to Class III gaming.

(b) Results obtained;
(c) Conclusion reached; and
(d) The basis for those conclusions.

(2) The Tribe shall submit, with the report, a copy of the eligibility determination made under subsection D of this Section.

(3) If a license is not issued to an applicant, the Tribe:

(a) Shall notify the National Indian Gaming Commission;
(b) May forward copies of its eligibility determination and investigative report (if any) to the National Indian Gaming Commission for inclusion in the Indian Gaming Individuals Record System.

30-52
(4) With respect to key employees and primary management officials, the Tribe shall retain applications for employment and reports (if any) of the background investigations for inspections by the Chairman of the National Indian Gaming Commission or his or her designee for no less than three (3) years from the date of termination of employment.

(G) Granting a Gaming License

(1) If, within a thirty (30) day period after the National Indian Gaming Commission receives a report, the National Indian Gaming Commission notifies the Tribe that it has no objection to the issuance of a license pursuant to a license application filed by a key employee or a primary management official for whom the Tribe has provided an application and investigative report to the National Indian Gaming Commission, the Tribe may issue a license to such applicant.

(2) The Tribe shall respond to a request for additional information from the Chairman of the National Indian Gaming Commission concerning a key employee or a primary management official who is the subject of a report. Such a request shall suspend the 30-day period under paragraph G (1) of this Section until the Chairman of the National Indian Gaming Commission receives the additional information.

(3) If, within the thirty (30) day period described above, the National Indian Gaming Commission provides the Tribe with a statement itemizing objections to the issuance of a license to a key employee or to a primary management official for whom the Tribe has provided an application and investigative report to the National Indian Gaming Commission, the Tribe shall reconsider the application, taking into account the objections itemized by the National Indian Gaming Commission. The Tribe shall make the final decision whether to issue a license to such applicant.

(H) License Suspension

(1) If, after the issuance of a gaming license, the Tribe receives from the National Indian Gaming Commission reliable information indicating that a key employee or a primary management official has committed a crime involving moral turpitude, the Tribe may suspend the license for a period not to exceed one year.

30-13.09 Repeal

To the extent that any sections are inconsistent, those prior gaming statutes are hereby repealed and these shall control.

30-14.61 Specific Background Investigations

Section 522.2(b) of IGRA regulations requires a description of procedures to conduct or cause to be conducted background investigations on key employees and primary management officials.

Background investigations of key employees and primary management officials shall include:

(A) A clear statement that the Tribe is responsible for the conduct of the background investigations and suitability determinations.

(B) An organization chart or statement showing the positions of people responsible for:

1. Conducting and causing to be conducted the background investigations;
2. Reviewing and approving the investigative work done;
3. Reporting the results of the background investigation to the National Indian Gaming Commission;
4. Obtaining and processing fingerprints; and
5. Making the suitability determinations.

(C) An explanation of how the positions and people identified above were selected.

(D) A listing of the minimum investigative procedures to be performed, including the following:

1. Verify by written or oral communication information submitted by applicant.
(2) Inquire into the applicant's prior activities, criminal record, if any, and reputation, habits and associations; interview a sufficient number of knowledgeable people such as former employers, personal references, and others to whom referred in order to provide a basis for the Tribe to make a finding concerning the eligibility for employment in a gaming operation.

(3) Document the disposition of all potential problem areas noted and disqualifying information obtained.

(E) An investigative report setting forth the following:

(1) Steps taken in conducting the background investigation;

(2) Results obtained;

(3) Conclusions reached; and

(4) The basis for those conclusions.

30-15.01 Guest Dispute Resolution Procedures

All gaming enterprises licensed and regulated by the Board shall create and implement procedures for resolving disputes, complaints and concerns raised by guests of the gaming enterprise.
