RE: Gaming Ordinance Amendment of the Comanche Nation

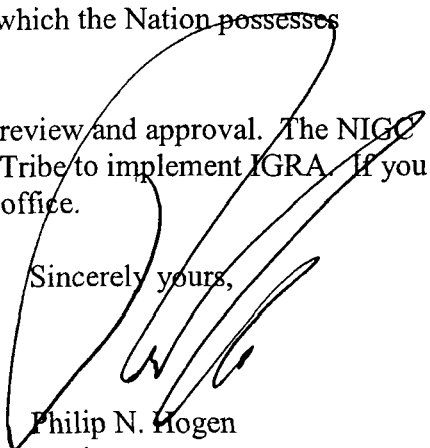

Dear Chairman Coffey and Mr. Plata:

This letter responds to Mr. Plata's request on behalf of the Comanche Nation for the National Indian Gaming Commission (NIGC) to review and approve the Nation's newly enacted amendment to their gaming ordinance. The amendment to the gaming ordinance was adopted by the Comanche Business Committee, on December 14, 2006 via Resolution No. 99-06.

This letter constitutes approval under the Indian Gaming Regulatory Act (IGRA), 25 U.S.C. § 2701 et seq., of the enclosed amendment to the Nation's gaming ordinance. As you know, approval does not constitute approval of specific games. Furthermore, the approved ordinance, and the newly approved amendment, is approved only for gaming on Indian Lands as defined under the IGRA, lands over which the Nation possesses jurisdiction and exercises governmental power.

Thank you for submitting the amendment for review and approval. The NIGC staff and I look forward to working with you and the Tribe to implement IGRA. If you need further assistance, do not hesitate to contact the office.

Sincerely yours,

Philip N. Hogen
Chairman

AMENDMENTS

- (c) The Nation recognizes the importance of an independent Tribal Gaming Commission in maintaining a well-regulated gaming operation. The Commission shall be and act independently and autonomously from the CBC in all matters within its purview. No prior or subsequent review by the CBC of any actions of the Commission shall be required or permitted except as otherwise explicitly provided in this Ordinance. To avoid potential conflicts of interest between the operation and regulation of the gaming facility, the Nation hereby finds that, at a minimum:
- (1) No member of the CBC or Tribal Gaming Board of Directors may serve on the Gaming Commission;
 - (2) No member directly related to or living with any CBC member or Tribal Gaming Board of Directors member may serve on the Gaming Commission;
 - (3) Members of the Gaming Commission, as well as all gaming commission employees, are prohibited from gambling in the gaming facilities; and
 - (4) Members of the Gaming Commission, or gaming commission employees, are prohibited from accepting complimentary items ~~from the gaming operation, excepting food and beverages valued at less than ten (10) dollars~~ except as specified in Section 110 herein.
 - (5) No person having a direct or indirect financial interest in a management contract or in any gaming operation may serve on the Gaming Commission.
