1. If, after issuance of a gaming license, the Tribe receives from the National Indian Gaming Commission reliable information indicating that a key employee or primary management official is not eligible for employment under subsection D. above, the Tribe shall suspend such license and shall notify in writing the licensee of the suspension and the proposed revocation.

2. The Tribe may revoke a gaming license, upon proper notice and hearing, under any of the following circumstances:
   a. For any cause which may have prevented the issuance of the license;
   b. For violation by the licensee of his or her license or failure of the licensee to comply with the obligations of the license;
   c. For violation of any provision of this Ordinance or the rules and regulations of the Gaming Commission;
   d. The licensee has been convicted of, or has entered a plea of no contest to, any crime involving gaming, fraud, misrepresentation, theft, embezzlement, a gaming-related offense, other charge which, if perpetrated at his gaming operator's place of employment, would injure or pose a threat to the public interest, or any other charge that threatens the integrity of the gaming activity or the effective regulation of gaming, or creates or enhances the dangers of unsuitable, unfair or illegal gaming practices, methods or activities;
   e. The licensee has been convicted of, or entered a plea of no contest to, a crime involving the sale, manufacture or possession of illegal narcotics or controlled substances;
   f. The licensee has failed to comply with any lawful order, inquiry or directive of the Gaming Commission, the Tribal Council or any administrative or judicial body of competent jurisdiction; or

3. The Tribe may suspend a gaming license, upon written notice and hearing, for any reason stated in subsection (2.), including in circumstances where the licensee has been charged with a criminal offense described in subsection (2.)(d) or (2.)(e).
