Honorable Mary E. Belardo
Chairwoman, Torres Martinez Desert Cahuilla
66-725 Martinez Road
P.O. Box 1160
Thermal, California 92274

Dear Ms. Belardo:

This letter responds to your request for the National Indian Gaming Commission’s (NIGC) review and approval of the tribal gaming ordinance, Ordinance No. TM-002-99, adopted on April 10, 1999, by the Torres Martinez Desert Cahuilla Tribe (Tribe). This letter constitutes such approval under the Indian Gaming Regulatory Act (IGRA). Such approval does not constitute approval of specific games. It is important to note that the gaming ordinance is approved for gaming only on Indian lands as defined in the IGRA.

Although the NIGC has approved this ordinance, we note, with some concern, Section VIII on the composition of the Tribal Gaming Commission. Under this section the Tribal Chairman serves as a member of the Gaming Commission. Since the date the Tribe passed its ordinance, the NIGC has issued Bulletin, No. 99-3 on the importance of the independence of tribal gaming commissions (October 12, 1999).

This Bulletin, “encourages tribes to review their responsibilities and procedures in respect to gaming regulation and consider whether their tribal gaming commission operates in a sufficiently independent manner.” The Bulletin suggests that members of a tribal council should not serve on the tribal gaming commission. In Ordinance #TM-002-99, the Tribal Gaming Commission includes the Tribal Chairman. As indicated in the Bulletin, allowing tribal council members to serve on the gaming commission does not promote gaming commission independence. We would ask that the Tribe reconsider this to take into consideration the advantages of having a Gaming Commission that is fully independent from the Tribal Council. I enclose a copy of NIGC Bulletin No. 99-3.

With the Chairman’s approval of the Tribe’s gaming ordinance, the Tribe is now required to conduct background investigations on its key employees and primary management officials. The NIGC expects to receive a completed application for each key employee and primary management official pursuant to 25 C.F.R. §556.5(a) and an investigative report on each background investigation before issuing a license to a key employee or primary management official pursuant to 25 C.F.R. §556.5(b).
Thank you for submitting the ordinance of the Torres Martinez Desert Cahuilla Tribe for review and approval. The NIGC staff and I look forward to working with you and the Tribe in implementing the IGRA.

Sincerely,

Montie R. Deer

Montie R. Deer
Chairman
