

National Indian Gaming Commission Training Announcement

NIGC.GOV

Event: National Virtual Training Conference #2

Date: April 20-22, 2021

The National Indian Gaming Commission is pleased to announce the second National Virtual Training Conference for 2021.

On April 20th – 22nd, 2021 we invite tribal leadership, gaming operations staff, tribal regulators and attorneys to our three-day, nine course conference to discuss, learn and connect in a virtual environment.

Day 1 of the conference provides the opportunity for attendees to hear from three separate panels who will discuss issues specific to all levels of the Indian gaming industry.

NIGC Commission Updates (1hr) - The NIGC Chairman, Vice-Chair and Associate Commissioner will discuss relevant topics and provide operational updates. Attendees can email questions for the NIGC Commissioners prior to the event to traininginfo@nigc.gov, please use subject line Commission Updates. Live Q&A will be included.

Panel Discussion: Division of Compliance (1hr) – Leadership from Compliance, Audit and Training will discuss important issues in the areas of compliance, auditing and training. Attendees can email questions for the panel prior to the event to traininginfo@nigc.gov, please use subject line Compliance Panel. Live Q&A will be included.

Panel Discussion: Division of Technology (1hr) - The NIGC Information Technology Audit Manager will lead a panel joined by invited tribal gaming guests to discuss the implementation of cashless gaming at tribal gaming facilities, and the challenges and the lessons learned before during and after installation. Attendees can email questions for the NIGC Commissioners prior to the event to traininginfo@nigc.gov, please use subject line Technology Panel. Live Q&A will be included.

Day 2 and Day 3 offers presentations relevant to both regulatory and operations staff alike including: Player Promotions, Contract Terms and Actions that Lead to IGRA Violations, Sports Book (New), Surveillance: Going beyond the MICS, Digital Wallets (Updated), and Top National Findings (Summary of AUP Reports). NIGC encourages attendance by Tribal Leaders, Tribal Gaming Regulators, Internal Auditors, Executives, Casino Operations staff and Attorneys to take advantage of the ability to attend these courses virtually. Live Q&A will be included in all courses.

The NIGC is committed to providing an exceptional experience for continued learning and information sharing. Please click on the link https://www.nigc.gov/calendar_main/event/7652/ to view our full agenda, course descriptions and to register for this event. The courses will be presented through ZOOM. Once registered for a presentation, you will receive a link to enter the course. NOTE: You must register for each presentation you plan to attend to receive a link to enter each panel discussion or presentation. As always, select the courses that fit your needs. There is no requirement to register for all courses. If you have any questions or need assistance registering for the conference, please contact NIGC Training at traininginfo@nigc.gov.