

NIGC at NTGCR

“Live” Training Available

September 18th & 19th, 2018

The National Indian Gaming Commission (NIGC) is pleased to announce free live streaming of our four training sessions from the National Tribal Gaming Commissioners and Regulators (NTGCR) Fall Conference. There is no cost to attend our virtual sessions. We hope to see you online. Register using the links below.

September 18th, 2018

Financial Statement for Commissioners, 2:15- 3:45(CDT)

<https://nigc.adobeconnect.com/e8y94o0m2u7u/event/registration.html>

The audited financial report contains vitally important information about where a gaming operation is and where it is going. As owners and regulators of tribal gaming operations, it is important to learn how to read the financial statement and fully understand the operation’s finances.

NIGC FAQ a Panel Discussion, 4:00-5:00(CDT)

<https://nigc.adobeconnect.com/engu4xnerxm5/event/registration.html>

The NIGC Chairman, General Counsel, and Chief of Staff will discuss sports-betting, 25CFR 547 and the 542 Guidance. Attendees will have an opportunity to ask questions. You can email questions ahead of the event to training@nigc.gov.

NIGC at NTGCR

September 19th, 2018

Gamesmanship: Misuse of Gaming Revenue, 9:00-12:00(CDT)

<https://nigc.adobeconnect.com/e6df6ut5hg7h/event/registration.html>

Misuse can occur when gaming revenues are used for non-business related expenses that can often go unnoticed. This course provides Tribal Gaming Regulatory Authorities an understanding of the Indian Gaming Regulatory Acts (IGRA's) five uses of gaming revenue, tools to help identify and investigate improper uses of gaming revenue and other methods to help ensure the tribe's assets are protected.

Small and Charitable Gaming, 2:45-3:45(CDT)

<https://nigc.adobeconnect.com/exxdpk1mpp55/event/registration.html>

Did you know that IGRA, NIGC regulations and tribal gaming ordinances require charitable gaming to be regulated? Are you doing enough? This course for tribal gaming regulators examines the legal ins and outs of regulating small and charitable gaming on Indian lands.